

Personnel Bio

Joe Gentz, Project Manager, Fort Rucker, Alabama

Joe Gentz retired from the United States Marine Corps after serving honorably and with distinction for over 20 years. His background consists of an infantry, Operations and Anti Terrorism Instructor. Joe's last active duty assignment was as a Marine Cadre and he graduated from the U.S. Marine Corps Security Force Battalion, Cadre Course. His last assignment was Brunswick Naval Air Station, Brunswick Maine. After retirement, Joe worked in Loss Prevention for a large National outdoor company; he then went to work for Day & Zimmermann Security Services at Brunswick Naval Air Station in Maine, where he served as the Anti-Terrorism, weapons and tactics instructor and eventually assuming the Site Manager for position for his employer, SOC. He moved to Ft Rucker, Alabama at the end of April 09 to assume the Project Manager position for a new contract for Santa Fe Protective Services Inc. This was a very difficult and short (30 days) contract to transition and Joe was instrumental in conducting myriad activities prior to full contract performance.

Joe and his wife Molly both hail from Jackson, Michigan and according to Joe his greatest achievement has been raising his family and remaining happily married to Molly for over 30 years.
